Jim Nash
Information Security Evangelist

Jim has spoken to audiences of all sizes through the various roles that have made up his 25-year career. His work in the IT sector over the last 10 years has propelled him towards passionate advocacy of information security, which he takes with him to his role as citizen legislator in the Minnesota House of Representatives. Jim has also served in several levels of state and local government as city councilor, mayor, and state representative.

ABOUT

Prior to joining FRSecure, Jim was a partner in fast-growing IT storage analyst firm. Jim spent 10 years working with customers and channel partners to understand clients' needs and create unique solutions to address them.

Jim began his passionate journey on Information Security in conjunction with his work in his company and in state and local government. Jim infuses humor and irreverence into his presentations and makes his audience feel that they are able to ask any questions and effect change in their organization.
