

FRSECURE®

John Harmon

President

John's ability to effectively communicate to individuals and groups is derived from his business leadership experience and 15+ years as a classically trained singer, a passion he still pursues today.

ABOUT

As President, John has developed an affinity for information security regulation. His primary focus is helping our clients clarify security requirements and start working toward an effective information security strategy. Internal process improvement is also a focus for John; as FRSecure continues to enjoy positive growth and reach, he is working behind the scenes to refine procedures and leverage our customer feedback to keep FRSecure providing ever-improving value.

John is an alum of Concordia College in Moorhead, MN, and has 10+ years of business leadership and IT industry experience. Since joining FRSecure in 2012, John has worked with FRSecure clients and partners to further FRSecure's world-class mission of building better security programs.
